

Please do not interfere with the no call list law. We used to get over 4-7 calls a day from overly aggressive sales people. These calls came mostly at dinner or other family times at home. We now get only one or no calls at all. Please do not attempt to change this Indiana law. It is one of the few on the books that help with in home privacy.